

MARINE NOTES

Mr. R. Morrill has the frames of his new tug set up and will commence planking this week.

The Collingwood arrived from Mackinac Sunday night and cleared again this afternoon with a full passenger list.

The Knox Church Sunday-School annual excursion will take place on Civic Holiday to Meaford and Collingwood.—Owen Sound Sun.

Mr. Keough, of Owen Sound, President of the Great Northern Transit Co., has been in town for the past two weeks looking after the business of the company during the illness of Manager Cameron.

On her down trip from the Soo and Mackinaw the white liner Majestic ran aground during a fog at Griffith's Island Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. After being stranded for nearly three hours, she pulled off, arriving here at 6:30 in the evening.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

The Little Current Expositor says: "The tug Frank W., of Alpena arrived up Wednesday evening with the tug John Owen in tow. The tug John Owen was drawing fourteen feet of water and when trying to go through here she grounded in mid-channel and did not get pulled off until the next morning. She had to return and go around the outside of the Island. This is but another example to show the necessity of having this channel blast-out more. This matter should be brought before Mr. A. E. Dymont, M. P., and he should press the necessity of the expenditure of money here
