

ter's block.

CIGARETTES THE CAUSE.

The shed on the town dock had a narrow escape from destruction by fire Saturday morning. Fortunately the blaze, which originated at the southwest corner of the building, was noticed by Capt. Bassett of the City of Collingwood, before it had gained much headway. It was put out by a few pails of water. It is supposed to have been started by some boys who were seen smoking cigarettes in the vicinity.

Balance of a manufacturers stock