

the following Sunday.

MARINE.

The dredge has been doing some good work near the elevator this week.

The water in the harbor is considerable higher than at the same date last year.

A number of train loads of grain have been removed from the elevator here this week.

The City of Midland was billed to carry a Masonic excursion out of Thornbury yesterday.

A picnic party was caught in a squall on Saturday, but fortunately escaped without accident.

The tug Saucy Jim was on the dry dock this week for a new shoe. Mr. R. S. Dey did the job.

The Black Liner City of Collingwood had a full list of passengers on the up trip on Tuesday. The Mackinac business has been larger this year than usual.

A portion of the large raft which was brought to Messrs. Toner & Gregory's mill last week, occupies a place along side of the old pier north of the elevator.

Messrs. S. Carson and T. Draver have purchased the tug Orcadia with which they intend to engage in fishing. They left this week for Cockburn Island where they will probably remain two or three months.

The steamer Majestic came direct from Killarney to here on Tuesday and returned to Owen Sound the same evening. On Wednesday the steamer carried an excursion from Owen Sound to Penetang.