The Str. Atlantic arrived on Monday morning and left the same evening on her last trip for the season.

The steamer Telegram, Capt. Jas. Ganley arrived in port on Monday evening to go into winter quarters.

Capt. F. Scott was up the lakes this week with the tug Saucy Jim. The trip was made to take up the buoys.

The last steamer, the Pacific, is expected to leave here this (Thursday) afternoon. The Midland got away on Tuesday on her last trip.

The Schooner Barvaria ran ashore while attempting to enter Lake Wolsey, near Gore Bay. The assistance of the tugs Advance and Elite were necessary to release the vessel.

The keel of Playfair's new tug will be laid this week. The tug will be 135 feet overall, 125 foot keel, and 21 foot beam. It will be the largest boat built in Midland.—Free Press.
