Notices have been issued to the subordinate Councils of the Canadian Association of Masters and Mates to the effect that the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of that Order is to be held in the room of Toronto Council, No. 1, Room 212, St. James' Chambers, corner of Church and Adelaide streets, Toronto, commencing at 10 a.m. of Tuesday, February 13th, inst. The Grand Secretary is desirous of knowing in advance how many representatives will attend the annual meeting and to receive full returns from all the subordinate Councils. Particulars may be obtained by communicating with Capt. William Ireland, Grand Secretary, Parry Sound.

Capt. G. C. Coles, Inland Lloyd Inspector, is about to make a survey on the fleet of boats at Collingwood, Owen Sound and Meaford. This will keep the captain busy for a time, although he seems always busy.
