SEASIDE CLOTHES

With the sailing of the steamer City of Melville on Tuesday last the north shore port and the Market Jetty and Garry Point have a totally the finest view that can be had in Northern Navigation. On account of this season of navigation the elements are favourable. The days of Whaling are over on Monday night, making the north shore port having on board among other freight a carload of whale shipped by Brown Bros. The steamer will be out for some days yet, the Melville probably returning about Saturday or Sunday and the other in about a week's time. On the Sparta Division the last steamer will leave tomorrow for Port Arthur and Duluth.
